

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 1743

January 29, 2018

SUMMARY OF BILL: Specifies that participation in any court certified by the Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services (DMHSAS) may constitute a basis for finding an extreme hardship and staying an order to revoke a person's driver's license.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 40-24-105(b)(3)(A)(iii), participation in any recovery court may constitute a basis for finding an extreme hardship and staying an order to revoke a person's driver's license.
- Based on the information provided by the Department of Safety (DOS), requiring any recovery court to be certified by the DMHSAS to constitute a basis for finding an extreme hardship and staying an order to revoke a person's driver's license will have no fiscal impact on DOS or its operations.
- Policies adopted under the provisions of the proposed legislation will be similar to policies which have been adopted under current law. Therefore, any fiscal impact to state or local government is estimated to be not significant.
